

RIVERS STATE UNIVERSITY

Nkpolu-Oroworukwo, Port Harcourt

Congratulatory Message

The Vice-Chancellor of the Rivers State University, Nkpolu-Oroworukwo, Port Harcourt, Prof. Isaac Zeb-Obipi, on behalf of the Senate, heartily congratulate Prof. Jackson G. Akpa, Dean, Faculty of Engineering, on your conferment with the prestigious Award of Fellow Nigerian Society of Engineers (FNSE).

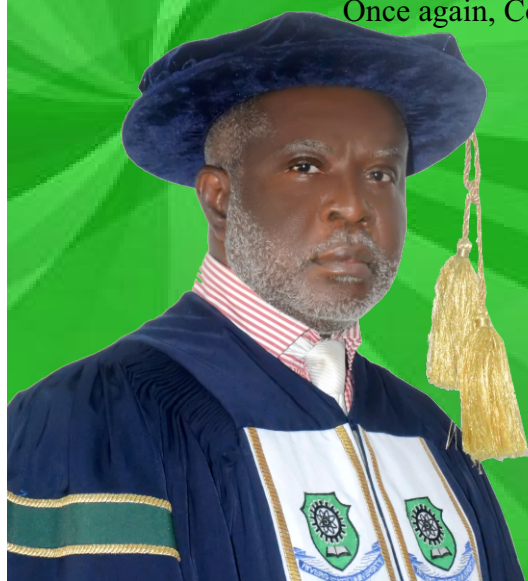

This well-deserved Award is a testament to your immense contributions to the field of Engineering and dedication to academic excellence in the University. Your commitment to advancing knowledge and fostering innovation has not only distinguished you but has also brought pride to the University and the Engineering community at large.

Your leadership and mentoring of the next generation of Engineers has been truly remarkable. Many young Engineers have benefited from your guidance, scholarly work, research and professional engagements.

As you receive this distinguished honour, we encourage you to continue in your exemplary work and remain a source of inspiration to your colleagues, students and the entire Engineering community.

May this recognition serve as a stepping stone to even greater achievements in your career.

Once again, Congratulations on this remarkable achievement.
